MEXICO ASKS TO REOPEN RELATIONS ARE NOT SO ANXIOUS AFTER ALL

ASKS THIS GOVERNMENT TO RE-CONSIDER ORDER REMOVING EMBARGO ON ARMS—SAYS IT FOMENTS ANARCHY AND HUE-TA PROTECTS FOREIGNERS.

[By Associated Press]

Washington, Feb. 27.—After a long lapse the Mexican government attempts to reopen diplomatic correspondence with Washington in a communication asking the American government to reconsider lifting the embargo on arms. The Mexican note claims this ferments anarchy by placing the rebels in a favorable position to commit outrages. It claims wherever the Huerta government is in power protection has been afforded to foreigners.

WHEN VILLA GIVES CONSENT FOR BENTON'S BODY TO BE EX-AMINED THE UNITED STATES AND GREAT BRITAIN HALT—WHY THE DELAY NOT STATED.

[By Associated Press]

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 27.—George C.
Carothers, the American government agent, said today he has postponed his trip to Chihuahua City, where Villa has announced Benton's body is awaiting examination. Mr. Carothers gave no reason, but it is believed that British Consul Perceval's arrival here is the cause of the postponement, and that when the investigators go to Chihuahua Perceval will accompany them.
Villa offers to let two Americans, two British representatives and two members of Benton's family examine the body.

BRYAN SAYS HOLD BACK MILITIA

Warns Governor Colquitt That Federal Government Alone Could Assume This Responsibility.

[By Associated Press]

Washington, Feb. 27.—Secretary Bryan last night telegraphed Governor Colquitt of Texas that the sending of the State militia into Mexico to apprehend those responsible for the hanging of Clemente Vergara, an American citizen, would involve a responsibility which the Federal government alone was in a position to assume.

The Governor had inquired whether the Federal government had any objections to the sending by the State of a force to arrest the slayers of Vergara. Secretary Bryan replied that the Washington government was doing all that it could do to obtain the arrest and punishment of the offenders.

A similar situation arose in Texas in February, 1912, and February 24, 1913, when border troubles caused Governor Colquitt to declare he might send Texas rangers into Mexico either to prevent firing into American territory or to protect Americans.

When, on February 24, 1913, Governor Colquitt ordered four companies of militia to Brownsville, the War Department telegrapher General Steever, then in command of the Department of Texas, "under no circumstances to permit their crossing the river except under specific orders of the Secretary of War."

Will Increase Ranger Force.

[By Associated Press]
Austin, Tex., Feb. 27.—Governor Colquitt intimated today that he would likely increase the rangers on the border to protect Texas citizens.

VILLA RULES IN ROYAL FASHION

Will Not Leave His Little Kingdom to Lead Attack on Torreon.

[By Associated Press]

Chihuahua, Mexico, Feb. 27.—It is asserted here that Villa's failure to march upon Torreon is because of his satisfaction with his supreme authority here. Surrounded by dual pomp of civilians and soldiers, and waited upon by representatives of foreign powers, no effort has been made to conceal his dictatorship. He has surrounded himself with men who accept his word as law. It is openly stated that for Mexicans to express opinions adverse to Villa warrants execution, and disobedience of orders is imprisonment. A Mexican conductor was imprisoned because he was late with a train Villa had ordered. It is not believed Carranza will come here until Villa leaves. Troops have been ready for weeks to attack Torreon.

MORE GRAPE JUICE THREATS BY CABINET

Would Impress on Huerta Government Necessity of Punishing Ver-gara's Murderers.

[By Associated Press]

Washington, Feb. 27.—The American government regards the hanging of Clemente Vergara as a subject for reparation by the Huerta government.
This became known after today's Cabinet meeting. Cabinet members are particularly concerned over Vergara's hanging, believing it has shocked the American people. Steps will be taken to impress the Huerta government with the necessity of punishment, particularly after the Federal's repeated assurances that Vergara would be unharmed. The Cabinet agreed to try vigorously to secure Benton's body.

rescue. The gendarmes commander, Major Ohlson, a Swede, was killed.
